temporarily reduces movement of the muscles that cause facial lines. You just rub it on and it's said to work in 20 minutes.

DermaFreeze365 ($40; available at CVS, Walgreens, Rite Aid and www.dermafreeze365.com) is a topical cream that also contains GABA to temporarily freeze muscle movement. After applying it to your lines, they say you'll see results in 10 minutes and cumulative results in four weeks. (There's also DermaFreeze365 Neck and Chest Instant Firming Lotion to smooth lines on those areas.)

Do-It-Yourself Safety Steps

Though they're made for at-home use, these products still need to be used carefully.

- ✿ Follow the directions exactly.
- ✿ Don't assume using more of the product or using it more often than recommended will give you better results. In fact, this can result in irritation or other skin problems.
- ✿ Test the product on your forearm or behind your ear to see if you'll have a reaction to it.
